at any rate - I don't know what he

So far as part of the Govt amounts are concerned they have passed final orders in respect

24) There was a bona fide contention between the parties as to the date from which the amount of annuity ordered had to be paid, and the matter came for decision before Government. The Chairman in their recent order fixed the date from which the annuity should be held to have accrued due, and directed payment of the same within two months from the date of the order. Nearly half the amount has admittedly been paid by the Jaghirdar, and Government have for proper reasons extended the time for the payment of the balance by two months. There does not, therefore, appear to be any good grounds for ordering payment of interest. The orders already issued have definitely fixed the period for payment, and the question of directing payment of interest can arise only if the payment is not made within that date. In default of such payment, the rules already framed will apply, and it is then that there will be necessity for a special order about interest. If approved, the papers will be merely filed.

Sir,

Legis 35-15-5 Flag F

With reference to paragraph 6 of Government order No.J. 1190-2, dated the 21st September 1916 giving me two months' time for complying with the directions of Government, I beg to state that I find the time altogether insufficient to collect at once all the money required. Money has been locked up in sandalwood which as the Government are already aware, I could not readily sell owing to the objections raised by the Conservator of Forests. My claims to certain excise revenue have remained undecided for years with the result that the revenues of the Jaghir have become slender as compared with expenditure. Quite recently a large number of tanks in the Jaghir breached, involving considerable capital expenditure on their restoration and also some loss of revenue.

2. In these circumstances I would solicit the favour of extending the time for payment by another two months.

3. Such an extension would moreover keep the matter open until it is finally decided by the Government of India.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Sir.

With reference to G.O no J. 1190 2 Legis 35. 15. 5 dated the 21st Sept 1916, I beg to state as follows

I waited for nearly two months to see if my brother would remit me the money as per the G.O

2. As he did not do so, I wrote to him on the 13th november requesting him to disburse the Annuity account due to me and also explained to him the Considerable pecuniary distress I was in.

3. In reply, I received copy of his Communication no 655 to Government wherein he stated he prayed Government to permit him to pay me only Rs 11.000/- as part payment and to allow him to pay the rest two months later.

I am not quite sure if his idea is not to protest against the orders of Government to disburse arrears

4. I replied I would accept Rs 11.000/- without prejudice to any arrears that may be due to me

5. He has on 27 nov sent me a cheque for Rs 11.000/- I beg to thank Govt most heartily for this In the light of the past, I am sure the jaghirdar himself would not have paid me and the emphatic order of Government has saved

Government with further requests but it to the Consideration of Government if some interest at least should not be charged on the moneys withheld. The rate and period I beg to leave for the decision of Government

I beg to remain.
